

ART. 226. Notwithstanding the provision of the next preceding Article, the President may detail such members of the faculty as he may consider necessary to teach during the summer sessions of the University, but such members so detailed and who actually teach throughout the summer sessions shall be entitled to vacation throughout the next succeeding summer.

ART. 227. In the event of failure to render service as required in the next preceding Article, without good reasons, the teacher in question shall not be entitled to the regular salary corresponding to that summer session.

ART. 228. Teacher's sick leave shall consist of not more than fifteen (15) days, excluding Saturdays, Sundays and holidays, in any one academic year. Absence for more than two days at a time shall not be approved unless a doctor's certificate is submitted or unless the physical appearance of the faculty member clearly shows that he has been sick or seriously indisposed.

ART. 229. The inter-semester period shall not be a vacation for the faculty members but shall be for the purpose of giving them time to grade examination papers, prepare reports of students' grades, clear up all other pending academic and committee work, and help in the registration for the following semester.

Sec. 3. Cumulative Leave

ART. 230. Cumulative leave shall be granted to members of the faculty who regularly perform administrative functions and to officers, employees, and laborers. Administrative functions pertain to offices which are normally necessary in the management of the affairs of the University System and its units.
