

- f. Freshman English and Elementary Spanish, French and German;
- g. Certain courses in mathematics to be determined by the Dean or Director concerned, subject to the approval of the President;
- h. Certain clinical, and surgical and laboratory classes in the College of Medicine;
- i. Certain types of field work in the College of Agriculture;
- j. Certain laboratory courses in the College of Engineering;
- k. The Conservatory of Music, except the theory classes;
- l. Certain classes in the School of Fine Arts and Architecture;
- m. Military Science and Physical Education classes; and
- n. Such other courses as in the judgment of the President require small classes.

ART. 317. No class shall be divided into sections for either of the following causes:

- a. To suit the personal preference of the individual instructors in regard to time and place; and
- b. To enable the instructors to comply with the regulations governing teaching load.

ART. 318. The Vice-President for Academic Affairs, Dean of Admissions, deans, directors and division or department chairmen are charged with the enforcement of these rules. (789th B/R, Nov. 25, 1969; 790th B/R, Dec. 19, 1969).

ART. 319. At the end of every academic year, each Dean or Director shall present to the President a report, together with his recommendations, on class size in his college or school. In view of these reports and other available data, the Vice-President for Academic Affairs in consultation with the Dean of Admissions shall then present his own views to the President on problems of class size. (789th B/R, Nov. 25, 1969; 790th B/R, Dec. 19, 1969).